Golf Course Rules

- It is essential that the prescribed tee-off times be adhered to, and players are therefore required to be on the tee at least 10 minutes before their tee off time.
- Players are also requested to repair pitch marks on the greens and to rake bunkers after use.
- Observe local rules.
- The rules of the amateur status are strictly observed (maximum value R10,000 per prize)
- Please adhere to golf cart rules: Strictly two persons per cart only.
- Golf carts – drivers strictly over the age of 18 years.
- Do not drive closer than 25m from the green.
- Keep golf carts OFF all tee boxes.
- To reduce the temptation of theft, golfers are requested NOT TO buy golf balls from caddies.
- The carrying of Sandbags is compulsory. Sandbags are available at a nominal fee from the Pro Shop or Tee Monitors. If you do not have one, your player will be required to purchase one on the Tee box.
- Visitors may not use personal ride-on golf carts at Kloof. Golf carts are available for hire from the Pro Shop. Booking is essential. Should carts not be available, personal ride-on carts may be used with the permission of the Pro Shop for a nominal fee.
- In the event that you wish to display heavy equipment or cars, please discuss this with either The Pro Shop (031 764 1492), who will oversee access to, and position of vehicle or equipment display. No equipment is allowed on the tee-boxes.
- Players are at all times requested to observe the etiquette of golf, with particular reference to "speeding up play". Please co-operate with our Club Staff.
